

Business and Employment Southeast Tasmania

Job seeker/Learner and Employer survey analysis

Brotherhood of St Laurence
Working for an Australia free of poverty

Let's make change that lasts

Job seeker and Learner survey

Business and Employment Southeast Tasmania

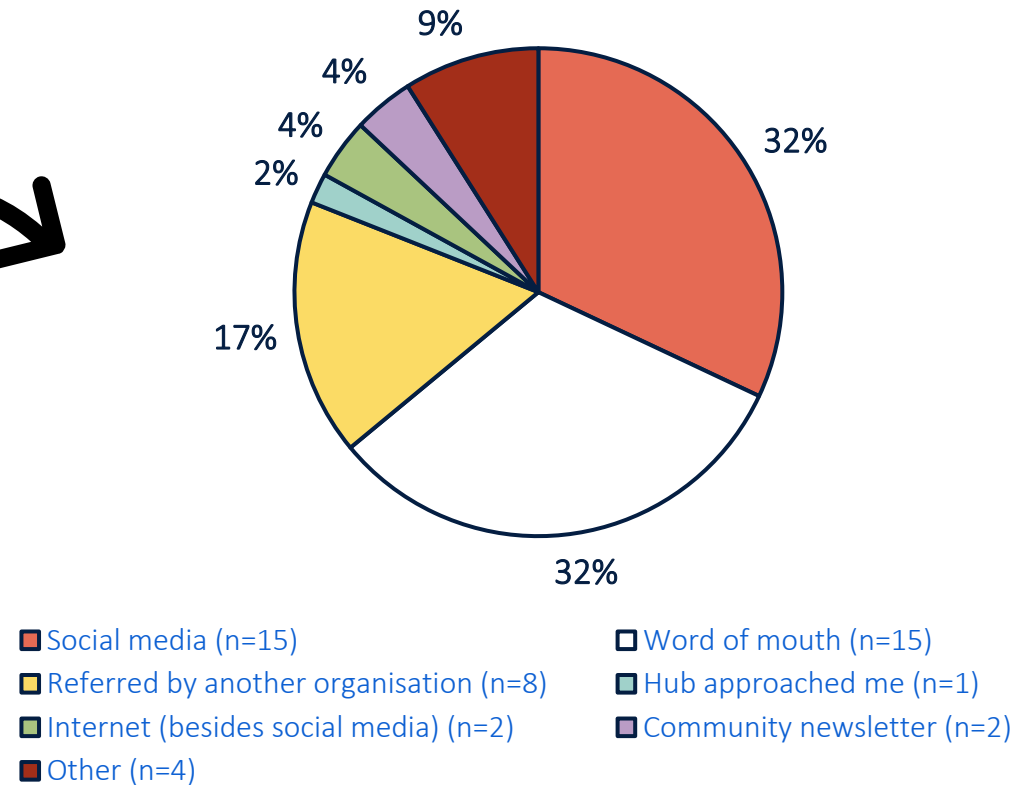

Job seeker & Learner survey

Total responses = 47

Respondent type

How did you hear about the Hub?

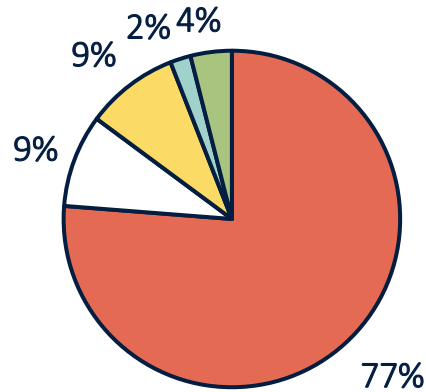

Business and Employment Southeast Tasmania

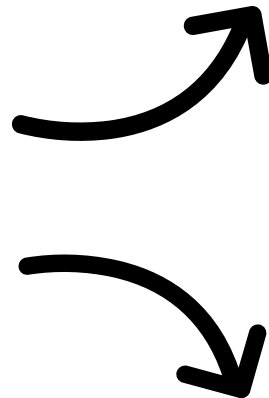

Job seeker & Learner survey

Total responses = 47

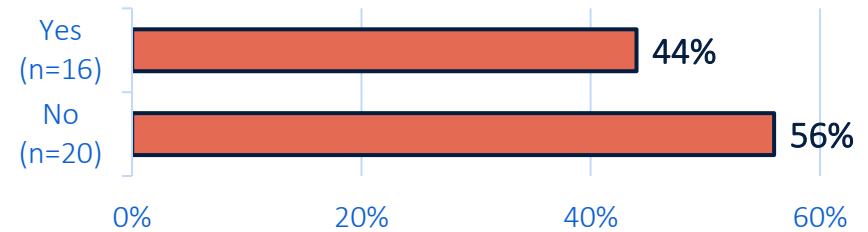

What was the main reason you engaged with the Hub?

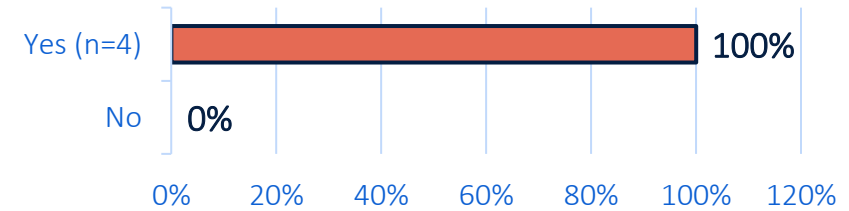

- Help finding a job (n=36)
- Building skills/confidence to be job ready (n=4)
- Information or advice (n=4)
- Help finding education/training (n=1)
- Career guidance (n=2)

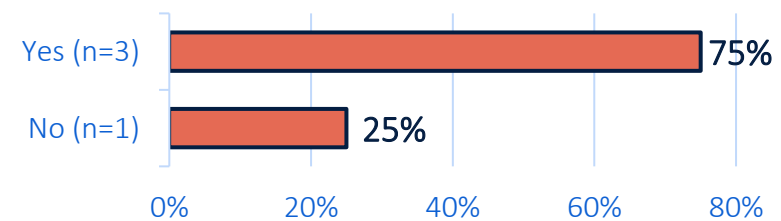

Have you subsequently found a job as a result of your involvement with the Hub?

Did you feel that you developed the necessary skills and/or confidence to be job ready as a result of your involvement with the Hub?

Did you receive the information and/or advice you needed?

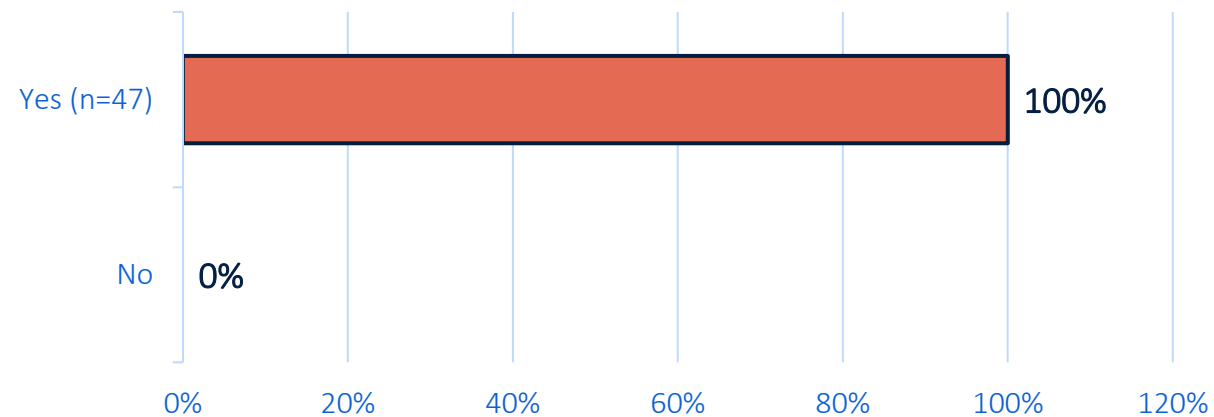

Business and Employment Southeast Tasmania

Job seeker & Learner survey

Total responses = 47

Would you recommend the Hub's services to someone else?

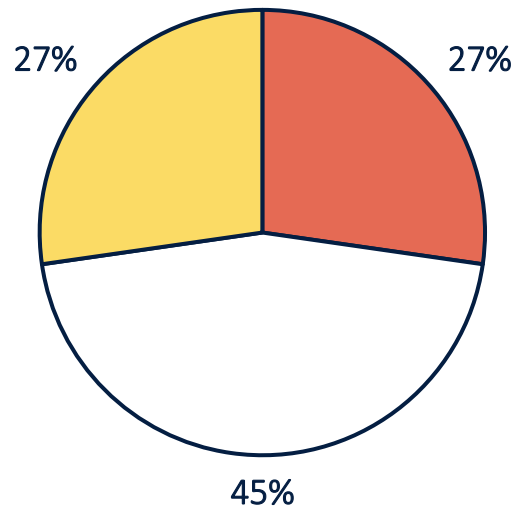

Employer survey

Business and Employment Southeast Tasmania

Employer survey

Total responses = 11

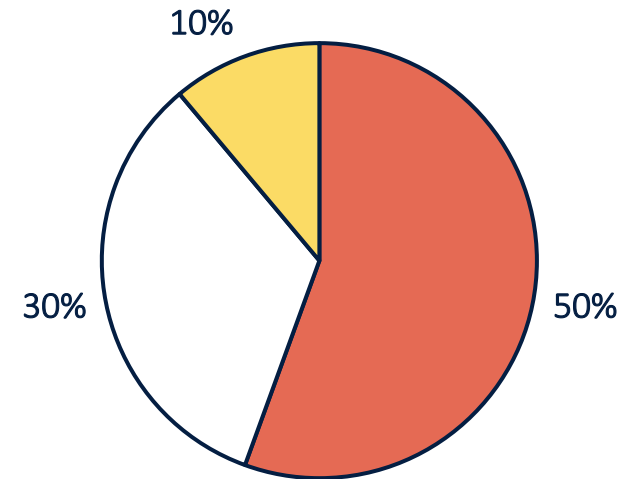

Respondent type

■ Micro (n=3) ■ Medium business (n=5) ■ Large business (n=3)

How did you hear about the Hub?

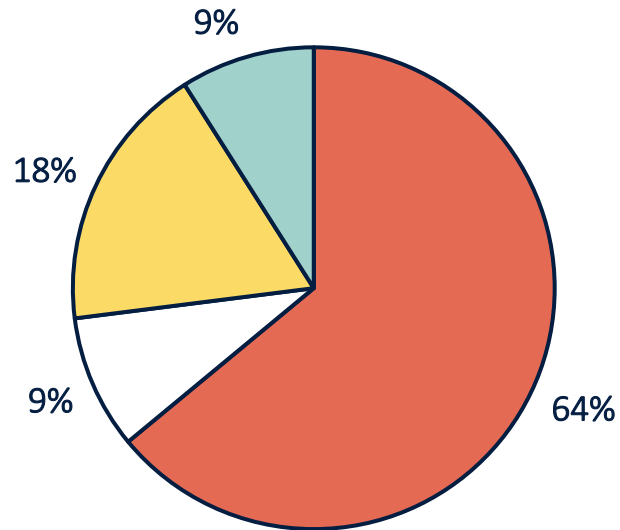

■ The Hub approached me (n=4) ■ Word of mouth (n=4)
■ Connected by third party (n=3)

Business and Employment Southeast Tasmania

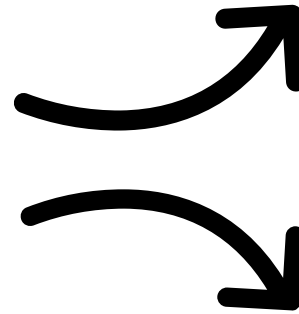

Employer survey

Total responses = 11

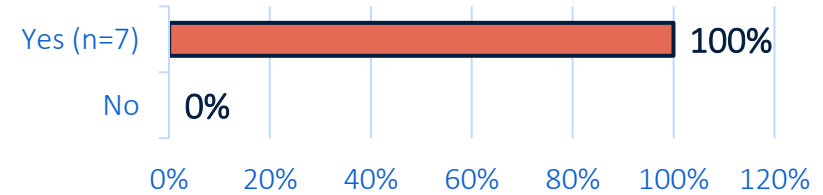

What was the main reason you engaged with the Hub?

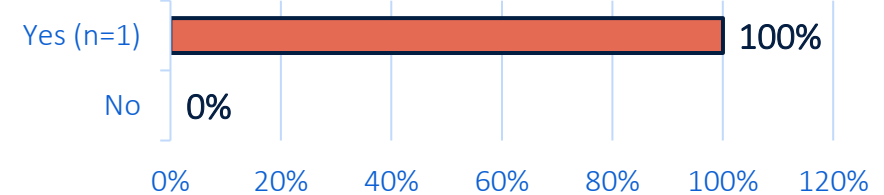

- Help finding an employee (n=7)
- Help facilitating apprenticeship/traineeship (n=1)
- Business support (n=2)
- Information/advice (n=1)

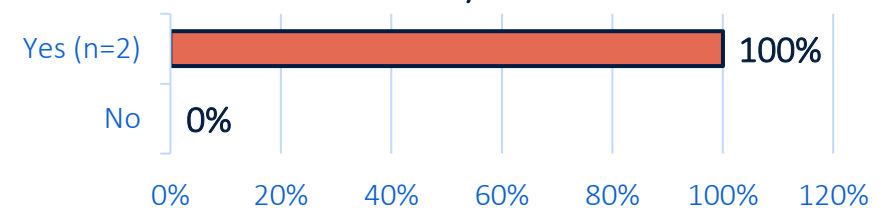

Did you subsequently find an employee as a result of your involvement with the Hub?

Did you subsequently find an apprentice or trainee as a result of your involvement with the Hub?

Did the business support you received from the Hub meet your needs?

Business and Employment Southeast Tasmania

Employer survey

Total responses = 11

Would you recommend the Hub's services to someone else?

